

February 7, 2002

Congressman Akin to Visit Fairmont Elementary School

Congressman will accept valentines made by first graders for military personnel

St. Louis, Mo.- On Friday, February 8, Congressman Todd Akin will visit Ms. Ann Ebert's first-grade class at Fairmont Elementary School 1725 Thoele Road. The Congressman has been asked to accept valentines made by the first-grade class for active duty military personnel serving abroad. Akin, a member of the House Armed Service Committee, will thank the class for their active involvement in supporting American military personnel.

WHAT:

Congressman Akin will visit Ms. Ann Ebert's first-grade class and thank them for taking an active role in supporting active-duty military personnel. The Congressman has been asked to help deliver valentines made by the class.

WHERE:

Fairmont Elementary School 1725 Thoele Road

WHEN:

Friday, February 8, 2:00 P.M.